Residential Learning Week in South Uist

A unique opportunity for intermediate to more fluent Gàidhlig learners to spend a 'Learning Week' in South Uist and its surrounding communities, enhancing and developing their use of Gàidhlig through a total immersion programme.

- Tutorials each morning
- Afternoon activities including
 - Walking tours on the hills and Machair
 - Croit visit
 - Peat cutting
 - Cockle picking
 - Visit to the island of Eriskay
 - Cycle tour
- Evening entertainment
 - Traditional dancing
 - Music and singing
 - Storytelling
- Full Board accommodation
- Travel whilst on South Uist

This is an exceptional opportunity for learners to experience Hebridean culture and apply their Gaelic in an informal atmosphere in the homeland of the Gaels within the exquisite and historical island setting of a traditional Estate lodge.
